Children in Year 5 need to be able to:

Use fronted adverbials

Adverbials are words or phrases that give more information to the sentence. It can tell us more information about how, when and where something was done.

Earlier today, I taught my pet a new trick.

The adverbial word or phrase is at the front of the sentence. So here, 'earlier today' is a fronted adverbial.

It is separated by a comma.

Fronted Adverbials

are words or phrases at the beginning of a sentence which are used to describe the action that follows.
